Sh. Subhash Chand Jain

Maturing with the life – cycle of CPJ-CHS, we encompass on the true needs of the students to make them employable & motivate them to gain the managerial, technical & soft skills along with ethical practices. Our educational programmes lay emphasis on all round personality development and also inculcating human values and professional ethics which help our students become more humane and socially alive to lead a meaningful life.

It is a matter of great pleasure and satisfaction that CPJ-CHS has come up with the latest issue of the half yearly CPJ Newsletter. I believe that the newsletter will serve as a window through which the complete profile of the academic and co-curricular activities, achievements and progress made during the stipulated period can be viewed.

I deem that our College will continue to serve as platform of academic excellence relentlessly and persistently.

May Almighty bless us all.

Message from Director

Society is changing rapidly in ways which have a profound impact on the role of educational institutions. At CPJ-CHS, we have a system of education where students will neither be deprived nor categorized on the basis of their economic status, family education or urban/rural background. If someone has developed a complex or negative mindset due to adverse environment and childhood, he/she is always helped to develop the self as an equal partner in education programme and later in life. The institution is committed to excel at best teaching, best training, best counseling and best placement for its students. It has alliances and collaborative partnerships with business, industry, government, courts and numerous research institutions. It follows a leading model of innovative approaches for student-centered initiatives as we deliberately grow to meet the expanding needs of our richly diverse students, alumni and greater community. Kindly visit our Campus and help us through your valued suggestions to further improve the system to be more effective and meaningful.

Prof. (Dr.) G.S.Karkara

It is always a pleasure to greet the CPJ family and others through this column of Newsletter. This issue of Newsletter is highlighting the academic, cultural and other activities at the CPJ campus from July 2014 to December 2014. Since this period coincides with the commencement of the new academic session followed by diverse functions and festivities, there is always an extran enthusiasm that is reflected all through these months. Right from the Orientation day to the winter break, this period reflects different flavours at the CPJ campus and sure that this issue shall give a good insight to all these activiteis. Sky is the limit at CPJ and we shall endeavour to scale.

It gives me immense pleasure to present the latest issue of the half yearly newsletter of CPJ-CHS. The newsletter will provide an easily accessible medium and a platform for disseminating information to our faculty in colleges and academic community of our discipline. In this issue, we recount the various activities in which our faculty members and students were actively involved during the last semester.

On behalf of Editorial team, I express my sincere gratitude to the Hon'ble Director General, Director and Director (Corporate Affairs) for their blessings and encouraging attitude in organizing co-curricular & CETPAC activities in the College. Special thanks are due to the members of Editorial Board for their valuable efforts in preparation of this newsletter.

Visit To National Lok Adalat At Supreme Court of India

A visit to National Lok Adalat was organized by our college for law students on 6th December, 2014. A total of 33 students visited the 'National Lok Adalat' organised at the Supreme Court of India, under the supervision of Dr. K.B. Asthana, Dr. Pushpraj Singh and Mr. Vijay Pal Singh.

Lok Adalat is a system of alternative dispute resolution developed in India. It roughly means "People's court". The idea of Lok Adalat was mainly advocated by Justice P.N. Bhagwati, former Chief Justice of India.

The Lok Adalat started at 10:00 am and was inaugurated by Supreme Court judge Honourable Justice A. R. Dave and in the apex court itself, 28 out of 53 cases were settled by three benches.

Students With Faculties At National Lok Adalat

Justice Dave said it is the best and cheap mode to resolve disputes as both the fighting parties come to a mutually acceptable solution and they do not have to wait for years to get their cases decided in court. The cases which were taken up ranged from family disputes, matrimonial cases, motor accident claims, bank recoveries, petty criminal matters, revenue matters, disbursements under MNREGA and other welfare schemes. Students were very keen to observe the court proceedings and learnt a lot.

Declamation Competition on Anti tobacco

Competition on social issues is the best way to spread awareness among students. Keeping this in mind, a declamation competition on “Anti Tobacco” was organized by CPJ-CHS on 20th October, 2014.

Students of BBA, BBA (CAM), B.A,LL.B (H) and B.COM (H) participated in debate competition with full enthusiasm and passion. Students shared knowledgeable information to the people and they tried to bring attention towards harmful effects of smoking cigarettes and chewing tobacco. Each participant rose to the occasion to defend their argument. All students enthusiastically put forward their points. The content, presentation, pronunciation and expression of all the students were remarkable. Thus by this competition, CPJ-CHS tried to take a step forward towards elimination of tobacco consumption to eradicate this evil from society. At the end of event, result was announced. Dhruv, student of B.A.LL.B (1st Semester) took away the best speaker trophy. The prize for the 1st runner up went to Sharan Banga of B.A.LL.B(5th Semester) and 2nd runner up to Prashi Tyagi of B.A.LL.B (5th Semester).

Teacher's Day

Hon'ble Director, Director Corporate Affairs and CAO Worshipping Goddess Sarswati

We celebrate Teacher's day every year throughout the country on 5th September. Students express their gratitude and appreciation for their teachers on this day. The day is celebrated in honour of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, a great educator, scholar and philosopher. A remarkable function in connection with Teachers' day was celebrated on 5th September, 2014 in CPJ-CHS. The function commenced with Saraswati Vanadana and lighting of lamp to seek the blessing from Saraswati Goddess by Director - Prof. G.S. Karkara, Director Corporate Affairs - Mr.

Yugank Chaturvedi and Programme Coordinator - Ms Deepmala Jain. The Director in his presidential address said that the teachers give light to students and they dispel darkness and ignorance in and around us. Marking respect and reverence, the entertainment was geared up to the next level with the Tambola game. The entire faculty participated in Tambola game. The programme ended with the dedication for the teachers by the messages and in the last, gifts were given to them.

Industrial Visit to Parle G

Students And Faculties At Parle G

Acquiescence from the management of Parle- G Industries, Bahadurgarh, Haryana paved the way for Industrial Visit of the BBA(G) 1st Year Sec.A and Sec. B and BBA(CAM) 1st Year students of Management stream of CPJ-CHS, on 8th November, 5th December and 6th December, 2014. The students were accompanied by four faculty members- Mr. Nitin Gandhi, Mr. Shaoan Sarkar, Dr. Urvashi Ghai and Ms. Shradha Jain. They were welcomed by members of Parle-G and elaborated about the details of the company. Students were not only exposed to the production function of the organization but also appraised about the marketing, financial aspects and quality control procedure of the organization. It was a fruitful experience and students gained a lot in terms of understanding management philosophy & practice of a well established and renowned company.

An Excursion Trip to Wonders of World

An excursion trip to Wonders of World (WOW) was organized for the second year students of BBA (CAM) and BCOM (H) on 4th October, 2014. Students left the College around 10:00 AM in the college bus and reached the WOW around 11:30 AM. The WOW trip had 50 participants and it was a great experience for the students as it is City's most entertaining destination, Worlds of Wonder.

Ms. Deepmala Jain At Wonders of World

It's one of the most exciting and sought after amusement park in Delhi and NCR. The park is divided into two zones, the Road Show zone and the La Fiesta zone. Apart from the international rides available, Worlds of Wonder also has wide array of indoor as well as outdoor activities, boating being the most popular of all. On the whole, students had a lot of fun in water and swings, a refreshing change from routine life where they could just relax and enjoyed a good time.

Swachha Bharat Abhiyan

CPJians Taking Oath

The idea of Swachhata Abhiyan mooted by the Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi is as commendable as the selection of the day for its launch on 2nd October, the Birth Anniversary of the Father of the Nation. Mahatma Gandhi himself practiced and preached lessons of cleanliness. Gandhian vision of cleanliness oozes out of his Experiments with Truth. We have to keep our surroundings clean in order to stay clean. We need to stay clean to make room for a clean mind, free from falsehood, dishonesty, deceit and violence. It is in a clean body with clean thinking that a clean Atma the soul dwells.

Keeping this in mind, CPJ-CHS & School of Law celebrated Swachhta Abhiyan on 2nd October, 2014 with great fervour at its premises. The day started with welcome address delivered by Chief Administrative Officer, Mr. S.K. Mohla, followed by Oath taking ceremony. Afterwards Campus surroundings were inspected to check further scope of improvement. The day ended with resolutions in mind that we will remain committed towards cleanliness and devote time for this.

CPJians' Step Towards Swachha Abhiyan

Independence Day

With the advent of the month of August, all of us are filled with a zeal and enthusiasm to express the feeling of unity and secularism as we participate in the celebrations for our Country. Chanderprabhu Jain College of Higher Studies and School of Law celebrated Independence Day in the College premises on 14th August, 2014. All students and staff members gathered near the flag pole in the afternoon. Everyone was happy and was eager to participate in the Independence Day celebration. The Director- Prof. G. S. Karkara delivered a speech and threw light on the historical importance of this day and performed the flag hoisting ceremony. The Director and Corporate Affairs - Mr. Yugank Chaturvedi expressed his thoughts on the significance of Independence Day celebration. Everyone stood in attention to give salute to the flag and our national anthem 'Jan Gan Man' was sung in unison with great pride and honor. It was indeed a day of joy, love and respect for the country and the students urged to make India a better place for Indians to live and to experience the freedom, peace and unity in diversity.

Intra College Volleyball Competition

Students playing Volleyball
